

5. Learning a new Language: challenges and Rewards

Learning a new language is very difficult because ~~we~~ we have a lot of ~~the~~ time. Reading the language books, watching video and speak to another person that language some challenges in the learning english we have to know grammar.

You learning the new languages ~~you~~ practice is importance your learning.

You learn the language you can easily communicate with others. speak with ~~on~~ others. speaking the language you gets fluency in that language.